Thoughts from the Pastor's Desk ...

Dear friends of Blessed Trinity,

The Gospel we hear today is one familiar to our imagination. Jesus has just recently called the first disciples who would become His apostles, to be sent out to share His Word. Going around the hill country of Galilee, He has been teaching and proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom. Crowds begin to follow and many begin to enter into discipleship.

As they gather, they climb the slope of the hill off the Sea of Galilee (also known as the Sea of Tiberias or the Sea of Gennesaret) and there on the grass of this mount, together as one, He proclaims the Beatitudes.

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are they who mourn. Blessed are the meek, the merciful, the clean of heart.

Jesus, who is God personally united to our humanity, calls to our hearts and minds the blessedness that is ours in Him. We are blessed in the Lord. We are blessed in His life. We are blessed in His grace and mercy.

The work of Christian discipleship is the realization of this beatitude in Him. We learn our prayers and practice our faith so to deepen our awareness of our blessed encounter in the Lord Jesus. Our works of charity, our acts of devotion, our hours of adoration, all must be ordered to an ever-deepening encounter with Jesus Christ.

As the people of Greenfield, called to be disciples of Christ and witnesses to salvation won for all in Him, we conform our will evermore to His. May we embrace poverty of spirit thereby humility before God. May we hunger for holiness and reconcile in mercy. May we know our beatitude in Jesus.

We are blessed, the poor in spirit.

We are blessed, the merciful.

We are blessed, the peacemakers.

We are blessed, the persecuted for the sake of righteousness.

We are Blessed Trinity.

Most Holy Trinity, I adore You!

My God, I love you in the Most Blessed Sacrament!

OUR FAITH.

A Brief Examination of Conscience

Based on the Ten Commandments

I am the LORD your God: you shall not have strange Gods before me.

Have I treated people, events, or things as more important than God?

You shall not take the name of the LORD your God in vain.

Have my words, actively or passively, put down God, the Church, or people?

Remember to keep holy the LORD's Day.

Do I go to Mass every Sunday (or Saturday Vigil) and on Holy Days of Obligation (Jan. 1; the Ascension; Aug. 15; Nov. 1; Dec. 8; Dec. 25)? Do I avoid, when possible, work that impedes worship to God, joy for the Lord's Day, and proper relaxation of mind and body? Do I look for ways to spend time with family or in service on Sunday?

Honor your father and your mother.

Do I show my parents due respect? Do I seek to maintain good communication with my parents where possible? Do I criticize them for lacking skills I think they should have?

You shall not kill.

Have I harmed another through physical, verbal, or emotional means, including gossip or manipulation of any kind?

You shall not commit adultery.

Have I respected the physical and sexual dignity of others and of myself?

You shall not steal.

Have I taken or wasted time or resources that belonged to another?

You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.

Have I gossiped, told lies, or embellished stories at the expense of another?

You shall not covet your neighbor's spouse.

Have I honored my spouse with my full affection and exclusive love?

You shall not covet your neighbor's goods.

Am I content with my own means and needs, or do I compare myself to others unnecessarily?

Christ's Two Commandments

How well do we love God and others? Do we love as Christ calls us to? In the Gospel of Matthew, Christ gives us Two Commandments: "He said to him, 'You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments'" (Mt 22:37-40).

Not sure what love is? St. Paul describes it for us in his Letter to the Corinthians. Is this how you love God and others? "Love is patient, love is kind. It is not jealous, [love] is not pompous, it is not inflated, it is not rude, it does not seek its own interests, it is not quick-tempered, it does not brood over injury, it does not rejoice over wrongdoing but rejoices with the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never fails" (1 Cor 13:4-8).

Busy January with special guests!

BISHOP BYRNE'S VISIT.

Bishop William Byrne visited Blessed Trinity Parish on January 21 and celebrated our 4pm Mass. His homily was enthusiastic and engaging as always, reminding us to foster an ever-deeper encounter with the Lord, through prayer, adoration, service, and even podcasts!

"Zélie", Bishop Byrne's faithful companion, was also in attendance, quietly listening during Mass.

Thank you to our young and diligent Altar Servers who did a terrific job in demonstrating their reverence and raising our faithful worship!

God Bless Bishop Byrne and his episcopal ministry!

FAREWELL TO FATHER VAL.

At the Reception (Left to Right):
Father DiMascola, Father Campoli, Father Pierz, Father Valentine, Monsignor Yargeau.

A big thanks to all that stopped by to say farewell to Father Valentine! The Rosary Sodality hosted this reception with delicious food including some Nigerian goodies which surprised and pleased Father Val.

We wished him well in his new endeavor at the Newman Center and St. Brigid's in Amherst. He said he was settling in to his new assignment and is enjoying the challenge.

How blessed are we to have such a wonderful group of spiritual leaders amongst us!
